LAST WEEK'S M365 COPILOT ANNOUNCEMENTS

It was an exciting day last Thursday, with many announcements. Here are the key highlights and resources to help you:

Bing Chat Enterprise builds on Microsoft Copilot and adds commercial data protection - so you can be confident your business data is protected and will not leak outside the organization. With Bing Chat Enterprise, chat data is not saved, Microsoft has no eyes-on access, and your data is not used to train the LLM.

- Focus on getting customers AI ready with Microsoft 365 E3 or E5 for commercial customers and Microsoft 365 Business Premium or Business Standard for SMBs now.
- Leverage Get AI Ready content on the Partner Portal
- Work with customers on data governance to ensure users have access to the right data.
- Get customers comfortable with AI in the workplace by using Bing Chat Enterprise, included in Business Premium and Business Standard, which is now on by default.
Get started at www.bing.com/chat.
- Keep the Partner FAQ handy: <https://aka.ms/M365CopilotGAPartnerFAQ>
