

ConnectSolv™

Today's market demands solution agnostic advice from trusted advisors.

The ConnectSolv team's mission is to make it easy for partners to sell the complete solution stack while opening new paths to revenue. We take the best of the distribution world and meld it with the best of the agent world, so you can grow your business however you want.

- A vendor-neutral approach to helping you find the right solutions
- Tools to simplify doing business that allow us to ensure you get paid commissions on time.
- Deep expertise in communications, collaboration, mobility and connectivity. A knowledgeable sales engineering bench with over 170 industry certifications with the ability to deliver remote and field services across 108 countries.
- Fulfill all of your customer's requirements.
- Work from anywhere (WFA), internet of things (IoT), digital transformation and other big industry trends require access to a wider array of the solution stack.
- Leverage the strength and reach of our partnership with industry-leading solution providers.
